AUGUST NEWSLETTER

In the wheel of the pagan year we are now at the time Lammas, Festival of Gratitude and First Seeds. It is a perfect example of the cycles of life because the seed gathered from this year's crop provides the harvest for next year. Applying this to your life means you should think back to the spring time and how life was then. Remembering your hopes and aspirations for this year and where you wished to change things and how you have nurtured these dreams. Coming forward to the now have these seeds grown and produced seeds? If so the seeds must now be gathered in and safely stored until next spring when they can be planted and produce new dreams for next year. Now is the time to give thanks for the good things in life. It is a time of celebration and thanks for the harvest. This is exactly what we will be doing on Friday (30 July) in our Lammas celebration. So come along and join us at 7.30pm.

I shall be giving thanks for a very good year here at The Rainbow Bridge. During this year we have upgraded our website which has brought us a lot more recognition, many thanks to Dave Mann who has done a great job. I have also started the blog page which has been received very well. Another project, which has produced a great harvest, is my own personal mediumship development. From this I have been able to plant a late crop of workshops that I hope to continue across August. If you are interested in developing as a medium check out the workshop on 8 August which is for those who wish to plant their own seeds to develop into mediumship:
